

Do you live or work in Brighton and Hove:

Unsure of your next path to take?

Looking for a job or next learning opportunity?

Want to develop your career?

If so, there's a new service with you in mind:

The Adult Advancement & Careers Service is linking advice services together in the city to ensure residents are supported on their journey.

An individual focused approach on:

Job
Searching

Careers
Advice

Benefit
Matters

Money
Matters

Childcare

Health

Training

Housing

A personal package of
on-going support

Plus much more

For more details please contact the nearest location:

Hangleton and Knoll Project

Hangleton Community Centre
Harmsworth Crescent
Hove BN3 8BW

Tel: 01273 292 962

AACS Contact: Ruth Melia

Tel: 01273 821 370

E-mail: ruth.melia@hkproject.org.uk

The Bridge Community Education Centre

Lucraft Road

Brighton BN2 4PN

Contact AACS Gateway Team

on: 01273 294929 or 01273 294930

E-mail: staff@bridgecommunity.org.uk

Hangleton and Knoll Project

St. Richards Church &
Community Centre

Egmont Road

Hove BN3 7FP

Tel: 01273 414 483

AACS Contact: Ruth Melia

Tel: 01273 821 370

E-mail: ruth.melia@hkproject.org.uk

The Whitehawk Inn

Whitehawk Road

Brighton BN2 5NS

AACS Contact: Becs Butler

Tel: 01273 682 222

E-mail: whitehawkinn@whinn.org.uk

Other Contacts

The Community Skills and Learning Team
on: 01273 294287

National Careers Advice Service
free on: 0800 100 900
www.direct.gov.uk/careersadvice

Nextstep (careers advice)
free on: 0800 195 4700
www.nextstepsoutheast.org.uk

The Whitehawk Inn

children and young people's trust

The Hangleton
& Knoll Project
Working for a better community

Leading learning and skills